Please note: Once permission has been given – this will not expire for the whole duration of your child being present at North Road Academy, unless we receive written notice withdrawing this permission.

Photographs:

During the day-to-day running of the Academy, it is sometimes necessary to take observations in the form of photographs and video & audio recordings of your child. These observations are used to record events, activities, and the children's progress, alongside this the School may also wish to utilise the photographs as promotional material such as the prospectus, website or social media. Every effort will be made to avoid or blur your child's face.

Parents who do not want such photographs or images to appear in any of the School's promotional material must make sure that the Student knows this and must write immediately to the Head Teacher requesting an acknowledgement of their letter.

Please sign to indicate your permission for us to do so.
